

STUDY GUIDE

SPRAY & PRAY (ART)

Category Overview

A wall is more than an empty surface. It can carry a message, capture a moment, challenge an idea, or simply become a space for creativity. In Spray & Pray, your team will be given the freedom to turn a blank canvas into something bold, expressive, and entirely your own.

With limited time, shared ideas, and a wall waiting to be transformed, every decision matters. You will need to work together, experiment with your style, and take creative risks while finding a way to make your final piece feel cohesive.

The challenge is simple: take the space, make it yours, and leave something worth remembering.

Round 1:

Days 1, 2 & 3

Delegates are to work in groups to produce a large thematic mural based on a theme of their choice from the following: Change - Myth - Oceanic

Judging Criteria

- (10) Communication - How well does the artwork adhere to their chosen theme?
 - (20) Composition - How coherent and compelling is the artwork as an image?
 - (10) Originality - How dissimilar is the artwork to existing clichés and conventions?
 - (10) Usage of Medium - How technically impressive is the artwork in terms of marking
- (50 marks total)

Rules

- Delegates must register in groups of 2-5 persons.
- Each team will be provided with a maximum of 15 hours to work on their mural.
- Groups are free to allocate and use amongst their members throughout the scheduled hours for art categories, but may otherwise come and go as they please
- Delegates are free to use references, so long as they submit them to the category heads
- All delegates are expected to bring their own materials, the only exception being a 3x2 foot canvas
- The artworks are to be submitted to the category heads when delegates are not working
- Depicting profane/sexual/violent/explicit content will earn offenders a disqualification and/or disciplinary action at the sole discretion of the equity board.