

STUDY GUIDE

CODEX (LITERATURE)

Category Overview

A dimension where three trials lie at the event horizon that test your creative vision, literary knowledge and puzzle-solving instincts. Whether it is redesigning covers, hunting down a stolen text or hoarding a plethora of facts, this category demands versatility and literary prowess.

Round 1: Morris' Mural:

Delegates will draw one chit from a bowl containing literary works and another from a bowl containing themes. Teams must redesign the cover page of their assigned book to perfectly match their drawn theme.

Judging Criteria:

- Creativity (10)
- Relevance to theme (10)
- Originality (10)

Rules

- Delegate Cap: 2
- Round type: Non-Elimination
- Time: 1.5 hours

Round 2: Jeopardy:

It is time to put your literary facts to the test on the big board. Teams will select questions from a grid ranging from 100 to 500 points. You have one minute to answer. Answer incorrectly, and you lose half the question's point value, passing the opportunity to the next team. The top 60% of teams with the highest scores will qualify for the final round.

Delegates are required to know information about the following:

Literary Devices:

Metaphors, Similes, Personification, Alliteration, Allusions, Asyndeton, Litotes, Polysyndeton, Caesura, Hyperbole, Epizeuxis, Anaphora, Antithesis, Assonance, Chiasmus, Imagery, Juxtaposition, Onomatopoeia, Oxymoron, Sibilance, Synecdoche.

Drama & Theatre:

Macbeth, Taming of the Shrew, Hamlet, The Tempest, Romeo and Juliet, Pygmalion, A Midsummer Night's Dream, Doctor Faustus, Pride and Prejudice, Emma, Ariel, A Doll's House, A Streetcar Named Desire.

Writers and Poets:

William Shakespeare, John Keats, Christopher Marlowe, William Wordsworth, Charles Dickens, Roald Dahl, George Orwell, Virginia Wolfe, Oscar Wilde, Jane Austen, Albert Camus, Franz Kafka, Sylvia Plath, Maya Angelou, Emily Dickinson.

STUDY GUIDE

CODEX (LITERATURE)

[continuation]

Rules:

- Delegate Cap: 3
- Round type: Elimination
- Time: 2-3 hours

Round 3: The Manuscript:

An escape room-style round in which teams would be given clues pertinent to literature. Teams will race simultaneously to solve a linear chain of puzzles and recover a stolen manuscript. Using a provided Reference File, delegates will track down specific words using text coordinates, arrange iconic quotes by publication chronology, and solve literary trivia.

String together all decoded words in chronological order to reveal the manuscript's final location. The first team to find it wins.

Judging Criteria:

- Originality (10)
- Creativity (10)
- Relevance to Theme (10)