

STUDY GUIDE

Director's Cut (MEDIA)

Category Overview

"Director's Cut" will explore the deeper, artistic vision that is held by delegates for their love of filmmaking. Delegates will have to present their short films to show the mastery they hold over their craft, while also demonstrating their own, unique takes on a short film.

Round 1:

Delegates will be tasked with shooting and editing a short film OR music video before the event starts. All relevant information will be conveyed through the @lgsjt.muse account on Instagram. Delegates will be required to submit their chosen project through email, google drive, or a USB. Teams should adhere to a single theme when making their videos.

Each team must pick a genre of their own liking to which they must adhere to when editing their video. Furthermore, delegates are required to submit a BTS video alongside their short film/music video to make sure that no outside help was employed.

Rules

- All files must be submitted before 4 PM on Day 1.
- Files should have a minimum resolution of 720p, with a maximum of 1080p. 4k will not be accepted.
- Files should be in .mov, .mp4, or .avi file format.
- Any usage of AI will lead to immediate disqualification.
- No outside help or plagiarism is allowed.
- If any profanity, vulgarity, violence or sensitive topic is touched upon, delegates must give a warning at the start of their video. Failure to meet this requirement will lead to immediate disqualification.

Note:

If delegates prefer using an editing software not mentioned, they will need to communicate it to the category heads in advance.

Round 2:

Delegates will be shown a selection of short films, from which they will have to choose one and critique in detail. The analysis must be written on a paper provided by the management. The critique must consist of both the technicalities of the film (e.g. types of shots, sound design, mise en scene) and the story of the film.

Rules:

- No profanity and vulgarity is allowed.
- Any usage of AI will lead to immediate disqualification.
- No outside help or plagiarism is allowed.
- If any profanity, vulgarity, violence or sensitive topic is touched upon, delegates must give a warning at the start of their video. Failure to meet this requirement will lead to immediate disqualification.

Judging Criteria:

- Depth of Analysis
- Understanding of Film Techniques
- Argument Structure & Clarity
- Writing Style & Presentation
